

Beer Lovers: Don't Feel Left Out Order a Craft Beer and Get a Second One for Only $1

We had quite a response to our announcement yesterday that because the restaurant is closing soon all bottles of wine are now 50% off. Wines from Opus One to Duckhorn to Super Tuscans to Barolos have been flying out of our cellar.

Our customers who love beer saw all the 50% off bottles of wine on the tables and said they felt left out. We can't let that happen.

For now until we close (or until we run out) order a draft or bottles beer at the regular price and receive a second one of the same price or less for only $1.

We really love our beer. We have 14 on tap and more by the bottle. LA Magazine called the architect of our beer program "the best beer sommelier in Los Angeles." For a time we even had an in-house beer sommelier.

Remember, our last day of service will be Sunday, February 1st--after which we will permanently close.

Join us before then to enjoy these incredible beer--and wine--values. They are out thanks to you. Hurry before your favorites sell out.
