LWV-PA, PCC, and the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce are co-sponsoring two candidate forums.

Both forums are at Creveling Lounge at PCC

at the northwest corner of Pasadena Community College adjacent to the parking lot where parking is free during the evening.

KATHRYN BARGER

LOS ANGELES COUNTY SUPERVISOR, DISTRICT 5 Thursday, September 15, 2016 7:00–9:00 p.m.

Did you know that public health, social services, child welfare, policing and courts, recreation, and museums are handled by the Board of Supervisors? Homelessness and housing, jails as mental institutes, and economic development are also current county issues.

PARK

MICHAEL ANTONOVICH

SENATE DISTRICT 25 Tuesday, October 11, 2016 7:00–9:00 p.m.

The candidates we elect will be making decisions for us about education, public assistance, Medicaid, corrections, transportation, children's health insurance, community care for those with special needs, public health, economic development, environmental projects, state police, parks and recreation, and state police.

ANTHONY PORTANTINO

The forum will be taped and broadcast by Pasadena Media/PCC-TV and available as Charter Channel 96 or ATT-U-verse Channel 99/Pasadena.

The League of Women Voters, a political organization that neither supports nor opposes particular candidates or parties, encourages informed and active participation in government, and influences public policy through education and advocacy.
